

Cognos Report Studio Level 2

Course Summary

Description

This class is designed to engage the students and promote long term retention. It does so by mimicking real world environment. It is project based; discovery driven, collaborative and adaptive to an individual's learning preference. Students learn through hands-on exploration under the guidance of an experienced instructor who brings the wealth of real world experience to the classroom.

Topics

- Introduction to the Query Explorer
- Query Components
- Multiple Query Reports
- Bursting Reports
- Advanced Prompting
- Dynamic Multi-Page Prompting
- Drill Through
- Advanced Charting
- Advanced Crosstabs
- SQL Validation
- Properties of Objects
- Overcoming Design Obstacles

Audience

This class is designed with professional report authors in mind. If you have experience creating reports in Cognos 8 BI Report Studio but now you feel you need some assistance creating very complex reports, analyzing traps in development and learning advanced techniques, then this class is for you.

Prerequisites

Students should have taken Report Studio I before attending this class. Knowledge of SQL and Data Warehousing is a plus.

Duration

Three days